

20. Tex's Map

The wagons and pack animals went across the empty land. They sent up dust as they went. Tex led the wagons. He was a man in a black hat on a strong ox. He had a map. He often got it from his bag as the animals rested. The rest of the men were glad Tex was there. Tex did not let on that the map was blank.

