

Mole Hole

The home of a mole is in a hole.

The mole digs the hole. It digs and digs.

The hole sits upon a hill--a mole hill!

Moles have strong noses. A mole scans the hole with its nose. It can sniff for grubs.

Moles snack on grubs. There are plenty of grubs in the land. They are dandy snacks for moles.

Illustrated by Mia Berg 2008

For more printables, visit www.FreeReading.net